Atlanta developers Regent Partners and Mariner Group are moving forward with a $500 million mixed-use project on the Savannah River in downtown Savannah, Ga. Another company, ELV Associates, is also part of the joint venture.

Land acquisition for the project has been completed, Savannahnow.com reports. Read the full story here.

The 55-acre mixed-use development that is planned to have multifamily residential, hotels, office, single-family residential, and retail space. The development will contain public parks and squares that will be constructed for recreational and cultural uses. The property is the largest single tract of undeveloped land adjacent to Savannah's downtown area. Read more here.

Work on the project has been underway since 2012. Atlanta-based Patrick Malloy Communities will develop the single-family residential component of the project.
